FROM THE TEAM RECTOR

Today our three churches come together at St Bartholomew's to celebrate Trinity Sunday. The 'East Ham Team Ministry' was formed in 1976 composed of St Bartholomew's, St Mary's and St Alban's Upton Park (since closed). In 2013 St Edmund's, Forest Gate, joined the Team to form the single parish and benefice of 'East Ham, Holy Trinity'. The Holy Trinity is a fitting title for a parish of three churches. Each of our churches has its distinct history and character, yet at each church when we gather we should have a sense that we are one parish with a shared mission. This day we give thanks for our shared life and witness and pray for one another across our three churches.

After today's service we hold our annual meetings. If you are a parishioner/on the Electoral Roll, please do stay and if you have not already done so take a look at the Agenda, minutes of the 2025 APCM and Annual Report using this QR code or by clicking on the APCM button on the website homepage.

God bless you

Fr Paul
