Volunteers for the church cleaning rota at St Mary Magdalene we are drawing up a new rota to start from September and would like to have more volunteers to join the team. If this is something you would be interested in doing, please contact either Chrissie in person or by email (cbence@hotmail.co.uk) or the parish office who will give you all the details.

St Bartholomew's Patronal Festival will be held on Sunday 7th September. There will be a Joint Parish Eucharist at St Bart's at 10am followed by a light buffet (see below). We look forward to welcoming the Revd David Sheen, Chaplain of Brasenose College as our guest preacher. Please note that this will be the only 10am service in the parish that Sunday. There will be no 10am at St Mary's or St Edmund's. The 8am at St Mary's will be held as usual.

Contributions invited for St Bart's Patronal buffet. All are invited to a light buffet following the St Bart's Patronal Festival Eucharist (7th Sept). Contributions of savoury and sweet dishes that can be served cold (e.g. salads, quiches etc) would be most welcome: please inform Shirley (Shirleybiro@aol.com, or via the parish office) by Sunday 24th August what you will be contributing so arrangements can be finalised.

A message from the Eco-Church group - the Big Butterfly Count, run by Butterfly Conservation, is over for another year, but don't let that stop you looking for these beautiful creatures. During the month of the campaign, several visits to the Nature Reserve recorded a total of 7 different species - almost the same as last year. Lots of white butterflies, speckled wood butterflies and some gatekeeper butterflies. We didn't find any red admirals, but we did see holly blue and small copper butterflies. Butterflies are generally in decline, so the information we collect is hugely important. The hot weather and lack of flowers in the Reserve have made a difference this year, so we hope our Eco Church Garden can help in a small way.

St Bart's Intercessory Prayer will follow the service on 31st August.
