Crisis sponsored walk In 1967, Bill Shearman, Iain Macleod - the Chancellor of the Exchequer - and the Revd Nick Beacock, a curate at St Barnabas Church in East Ham, organised a rally with a mission to end homelessness in London. That event gave birth to the charity that we know today as Crisis. There will be a 13-mile sponsored walk organised by Crisis, starting at St Barnabas Church Browning Road London, E12 6PB, and finishing at Hyde Park on Saturday, 11th October, leaving at 10am. Bishop Lynne, along with some of the Diocesan clergy and a large group of volunteers, is joining in, and we would be delighted for anyone else to walk in the name of ending homelessness. There is also an opportunity to join the group for a shorter walk at the six-mile walk. If you would like more details, please don't hesitate to contact Mthr. A message from the Eco-Church group - how easy is it to live a more sustainable lifestyle in an age of pressures on our household budgets? Can we save money while listening to our conscience about the plight of the planet? And how do we know if we are making the right choices? Perhaps together we can find the answers, support each other and learn from each other. That is why the Eco Church Group is carrying out a survey at St Mary's to find out just where we all are on our journey together to live a greener lifestyle. We did this last year, and it will be interesting to see how things may have changed in 12 months. We'll report back to everyone when the results are in!
